

Happy Holidays!

A Season of Giving.

Recently, I was reminded of the important approach of gratitude. Gratitude is a habit. It's a way of looking at the world and all the good things in it with a feeling of appreciation, regardless of whether or not your current situation is to your liking.

Be grateful to be in a position to give this Holiday Season. Be grateful to be here. To be alive. To take a warm shower or pour a cup of tea, surrounded by family. These simple things are not so simple to attain for many of the people we work with at VOA.

As we begin to embark on our holiday celebrations and look toward the new year, it's important to remember that our giving will make a difference for those who might not be as fortunate as we have been.

Is there a true meaning of the season? It is up to us to create meanings and act upon them.

We hope you will continue to support us and the work that we do throughout the new year to create opportunities for people like you and I to succeed and improve their circumstances.
